It was a bit warm, a little muggy, but not much wind and no rain. Tom Antczak reminded us again why he is in the Indiana Hall of Fame with his 100 straight in the Singles. He collected the $100 Bounty, again. George Krach & Tim Richards were close with 98s. A note for Doug Rodgers, don't look to be in C class anytime in the near future, especially with a 97.

There were a few great scores in the handicap. At the top of the heap was Bob Johns with his 95, which earned him a 1/2 yard punch in the mid yardage. Several 93s were right behind Bob. Vet was determined by long run forward from scratch, the other 93 took long yardage.

The 98 put up by Bob Johns was impressive, followed by great scores from Tom Antczak's 94 and a 93 by Tim Richards (all A class).

With great scores in all events, Bob Johns took High OverAll with a 289, followed by Antczak's 287.

New shooters: Don Mason who just moved to the area, and Eddie Lopez who last shot ATA in 2000.

The Added Money, $100 Bounty & Option payouts for this shoot totaled $589.50. We threw 6,000 targets.
