Just another day of trap shooting, in near perfect weather, and the scores show it.

Just another shoot for Tom Antczak, collecting the $100 Bounty in the Singles. . Since he retired, now he shoots with us to replace his job. His 100 was followed by a 98, 97, and six 95s.

Harvey Schultz shot a 97, earning a yard, and now on the same yardage as his son. He was followed by a 95, a 93, three 91s and four 90s. A good showing in the Handicap.

Doubles were tough in the mid afternoon, but a common name rises to the top, Bob Johns. He was followed by Tim Richards with a 93, and a 90 by Chris Stueck, and then h=it slides downwards.

Harvey Schultz walked off with HOA, and took home a Shamrock Leather dowble shell holder and mesh bag. Afterwards he said he really had his eye on the HOA, because he needed that trophy.

We paid out $658 in options and the $100 Bounty. We threw 8,900 targets.
