The threat of rain once again scared off some shooters. Shooters sat patiently till it cleared up a bit around 11 am. The rest of the day did sprinkle, and mist up, but not enough to call the shoot.

There was some excitement in the Singles when Larry Lipa scored a 99, his highest score ever.

There wasn't much going on in the Handicap.

Tom Strabavy made that score of 92 in the Doubles the hard way, running the 2nd half with a 50.

Not often we get more than one shooter with the same high score for High Over All, but we did. Tom Strabavy had long run in the singles, taking HOA.

Due to low turnout, we shot targets only, no added money and no Lewis was offered.

Our next shoot will be May 6, 2018.
